

Document 19: Sportsmanship and Ethics in Sports

Sportsmanship embodies respect, fairness, and gracious behavior in competition. Ethical conduct includes playing by the rules, respecting opponents and officials, and avoiding cheating or gamesmanship. Promoting ethics helps maintain the integrity of sports and fosters positive experiences for participants and spectators alike.