

Document 2: Larisa Latynina - Soviet Gymnastics Legend

Larisa Latynina is a Soviet gymnast who held the record for the most Olympic medals for decades. She won 18 medals in total, including 9 golds, across the 1956, 1960, and 1964 Olympic Games. Latynina's achievements helped establish the Soviet Union as a powerhouse in gymnastics. Her versatility and consistency across multiple events set a high standard for future generations of gymnasts.