

Document 5: Carl Lewis - Track and Field Legend

Carl Lewis, an American track and field athlete, won 9 Olympic gold medals primarily in sprinting and long jump events. Competing from 1984 to 1996, Lewis dominated the 100m, 200m, and long jump, setting multiple world records. His longevity and consistency made him a symbol of excellence in athletics during his era.